- Sherry Manley's class will put together a list of businesses and the church staff will recommend Homebound. Our part will be to deliver the baskets once they have been put together.

Future events for the Medium Adults

Our next event will be a fellowship held on January 30th in the church fellowship hall. This will be a movie night with hamburgers, hotdogs and popcorn.

We will hold another fellowship event on March 13th in the Huntsville area. Burritt on the Mountain or a similar event space will be selected. We'll have the event catered. More details will follow as we get closer to the time.

Our final Outreach event for this 6-month period will be a work day on April 2nd with the church staff making recommendation on who to help. We envision this being a half a day event with 4 to 6 people per house. Most of the people we'll be helping will need yard work, minor repairs, help cleaning the house, etc.
