Once again our WMU is (in conjunction with Creek Path Baptist Church) collecting Beans and Rice to go to the orphanage in Ghana, Africa. Our church has sent over 200 pounds of beans/rice every year and we are hoping to continue our commitment. There are collection bins outside the fellowship hall and outside the library. Thanks go to our church family for their continued generous response to WMU mission goals.

Book Reviews by Billie

Fresh Power by Jim Cymbala

This book is not about a new deodorant but rather about experiencing the vast resources of the Holy Spirit.

Pastor Cymbala poses the question: Have programs been substituted for prayer? He states that all of our cleverness can't transform a crack addict or heal the heart of people who are the victim of brutality. Only God's spirit can do that.

Many would seldom admit we really don't know how to pray. As children we may have been taught how to put sentences together that sound like a prayer. Prayer born of the Holy Spirit is supernatural assistance.

The author says it is time to get hold of the Holy Spirit or rather let Him get hold of us.

Fresh Power reveals what happens when the Spirit of God moves in our midst.
